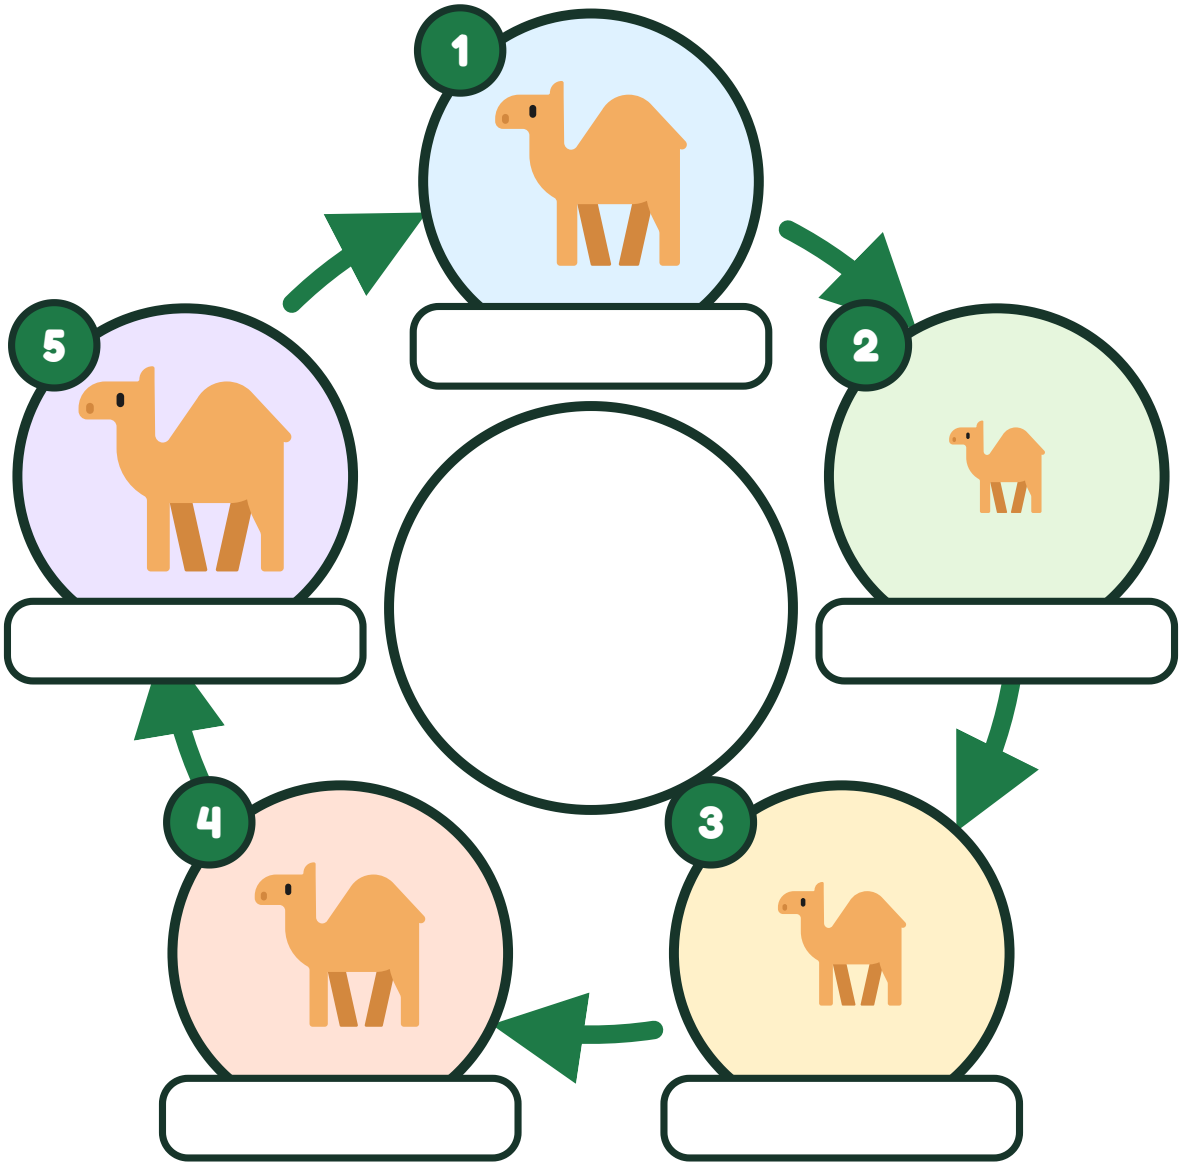
Label the Camel Life Cycle

Write the name of each stage in the empty boxes.

Name: _____ Date: _____



Word bank

Adult • Newborn calf • Nursing calf • Pregnancy • Young camel

Which stage comes right after Pregnancy? _____

Cut and Sequence

Cut out the cards and put the camel life cycle in order. ✂

Name: _____ Date: _____

Nursing calf
Drinks milk for about 1 year or more.

Young camel
Grows its hump; full size by about 7 years.

Pregnancy
About 13 months; usually one calf.

Adult
Females breed from about 4; males later.

Newborn calf
No hump yet; walks within hours of birth.

Match the word to its meaning

1. calf ____	A. a lump on a camel's back that stores fat for energy
2. dromedary ____	B. a baby camel
3. Bactrian camel ____	C. a camel with one hump
4. hump ____	D. a camel with two humps

Glue your cards in order on another sheet and draw arrows between them.

Answer Key

Camel life cycle

1. Pregnancy – About 13 months; usually one calf.
2. Newborn calf – No hump yet; walks within hours of birth.
3. Nursing calf – Drinks milk for about 1 year or more.
4. Young camel – Grows its hump; full size by about 7 years.
5. Adult – Females breed from about 4; males later.

Word match: 1–B, 2–C, 3–D, 4–A